3	MS. COOK: Hello. Good morning.
4	CHAIRMAN CONWAY: I'm watching the clock.
5	MS. COOK: You can see the clock. I can't.
6	CHAIRMAN CONWAY: See that? Okay. You
7	want to make your announcement?
8	MR. DELOACH: Another minute, sir, and your
9	mikes are all right?
10	CHAIRMAN CONWAY: Yes, yes.
11	MS. COOK: That is the thing I enjoyed most
12	about working here at the Defense Board, was that
13	things were on time.
14	CHAIRMAN CONWAY: We try to keep them on
15	time.
16	MS. COOK: I'm used to things being on

23	please, turn off their cell phones, pagers, any noise
24	making devices. Okay.
25	CHAIRMAN CONWAY: Thank you. Okay.

Today's meeting and hearing were publicly noticed in the Federal Register on January 12, 2004. Today's rescheduled testimony was publicly announced at our seventh hearing on February 3rd and also noticed in the Federal Register on February 4, 2004. The meeting and hearing are held open to the public in accordance with the provisions of the Government in the Sunshine Act.

Today's meeting is an extension of the hearings held on September 10th; October 21st and 23rd; December 3rd, 4th, and 16th; and February 3rd, and constitutes the eighth in a series during which the Board is examining the Department of Energy's current and proposed models of safety oversight and management of the contracts and contractors it relies upon to safely accomplish the mission assigned to DOE [Department of Energy] under the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended.

We will focus on DOE's proposed new initiatives and what impact, if any, they may have upon assuring adequate protection of the health and safety of the public and workers at DOE's defense nuclear facilities. Today, the Board will hear from DOE's Office of Environment, Safety and Health [EH] concerning its roles and responsibilities in the oversight process of defense nuclear facilities. I welcome today's presenter, Assistant Secretary Cook, 1 members of the public, members of the press in our 2 those viewing our proceedings audience, and 3 electronically. 4 In accordance with the Board's practice, 5 and as stated in the Federal Register notice, we will 6 welcome comments from interested members of the public 7 at the conclusion of the testimony, and that concludes 8 my opening remarks. Dr. Eggenberger? 9 VICE CHAIRMAN EGGENBERGER: I have no 10 questions at this time. 11 CHAIRMAN CONWAY: Okay. 12 Questions? 13 DR. MATTHEWS: No, no questions at this I think I'm okay. 14 time. 15 CHAIRMAN CONWAY: With that, Bev, we turn 16 to you. 17 MS. COOK: Thank you, Mr. Chairman and members of the Board, for the opportunity to address 18 19 you today. You have invited me to speak on roles and responsibilities of the Office of Environment, Safety 20 and Health in the oversight process. But in keeping 21 22 with some of the questions you have sent to me, I would 23 like to expand my remarks somewhat to the role of EH in 24 assuring safety operations of the Department of Energy. 25 I will speak to both of my role personally, and also
